THE BOYS SKIPPED

the Act of Attempting

A DARING MIDNIGHT ROBBERY.

DAY MORNING, BUT BEFORE THE PAIR CONNECTED WITH

Elm Grove is stirred up over the senafter midnight vesterday morning, just trance into the hall . over the general val had been held the night before. It supposed they were after ice cream, cake and other delicacies.

The boys' names are Sam Austen and Walter Wickham, and that they were captured was due only to the fact that a special watchman had been placed on duty at Chambers' store, on account of the frequent robberles that have occurred within the past few weeks. Daugh-erty's store, among others, having been entered a week ago.

When Wickham and Austen affected an entrance into the hall, they walked into the arms of the special watchman, George McCombs, who collared the pair and marched them to the home of Mayor Mike Madden. The mayor allowed the boys to go on their promise to appear before him yesterday morning, but as detailed above they broke their promise and have disappeared. At the home of the Wickham boy, the authorities have found some spoons that were in the stock of Mr. Daugherty until last week's robbery. It is thought until last week's robbery. It is thought there is a gang of youthful thieves at Wickham and Austen will probably reak up their operations.

TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION

Of Wheeling Held an Interesting Meeting Yesterday.

The Wheeling Teachers' Association net yesterday afternoon in the hall of the high school building, Superintenden Anderson in the chair. A song was sung by the high school pupils, after which Rev. C. M. Oliphant, of the Christian church, led in prayer.

which Rev. C. M. Oliphant, of the Christian church, led in prayer.

Miss McMurphy, musical director of the West Virginia University, gave a plane solo which was greatly enfoyed by all present. She was loudly encored.

Prof. J. M. Hammond rend an excellent paper on the subject, "The Teacher as an Oculist," He made the point that all teachers ought to know something of the human eye. It is not necessary to burn the midnight oil or to take a course in a medical college in order to have that knowledge. All teachers should have knowledge, enough to know when a child's eyes are defective, so that when necessary an oculist may be consulted. Too constant use of the eye should be avoided. The paper was well received. Dr. Jepson paid the very highest compliment in a few words spoken by him. Professor Turner, teacher in the high school, rend a stirring paper on the subject, "The Development of Independent Thought," It was well prepared, well read and well received, and spoke pleasantly of the great object of education. It is to make men and women, He would not argue what studies are the best to pursue in school, but would say that it should be those that will make life sweeter than it would otherwise have been.

A BEAUTIFUL FOUNTAIN

Placed in Schnepf's Drug Store-Largest and Finest in Town. What is said to be the largest and finest soda water fountain ever brough to this city, has just been placed in position in the drug store of Christian Schnepf, at the corner of Fourteenth Schiepf, fat the corner of Fourteenth and Market streets, and is attracting the interest and admiration of all who have seen it. A lady from a large city said vesterday that Wheeling could easily boast of a finer drug store (Schnepf's) than any in her own city of larger size and more pretentions. The fountain is of the celebrated Tuft make, and was erected in the store by R. H. Thomas, of Washington City, the Tuft representative in this territory. The body is of genuine Mexican onyx of dazzling beauty, and the top is of cherry, beautifully finished, with a large plate mirror and scroll; and fret work triumnings. When brilliantic liluminated at night the fountain shows itself worth the money—32,000—which Mr. Schnepf pays for it.

It is fitted with the latest improvements, including hinged syrup compartments, extra large refrigerating compartments, extra large refrigerating compartment, which insures the coldest of warm-weather drinks, etc.

A MILITARY COMPANY

General Casteel Comes to Wheeling. H. B. Baguley, regimental surgeon of Knights of Pythias, and an old Linely boy. These gentlemen know of past failures in this line, and, before proceeding further, will ascertain it the right kind of material can be secured. It is proposed to form a crack company, and as several young men who have been students at the Linsly, and connected with the Elkins Cadets, have signified their willingness to enlist, a fair start has been obtained. All those deelring to join can leave their names at Dickson's pharmacy, in the McLure block. As there is room for another company in the First regiment, Col. C. L. Smith, of Fairmont, commanding, Wheeling has now a good chance to figure in the National Guard, and the war talk has aroused so much local enthusiasm that it will not be surprising if Wheeling organizes a crack company.

Assistant Adjutant General D. T. E. Casteel was in the city last night, registered at the Windsor, where an Intelligencer reporter talked with him con erning the state's forces. Col. Casteel, is a former lieutenant colonel of the

The National Quard's two regiments at present can muster about 1,000 men, said Col. Casteel, but in its full strength would number 2,500. In addition to the Pirst and Second regiments of, infantry, there is a battery of artillery whose organization is now being perfected at Berkeley Springs, and a signal corps, at Charleston. The composition of the two regiments is as follows:

First Regiment—Company A, Elkins; B, Moundsville; D, Berkeley Springs; E, Martinsburg; F, Burton; G, Valentine; H, Piedmont; I, Charleston; K, Clarksburg.

Second Regiment—Company A, Blue.

Clarksburg.

Second Regiment—Company A, Bluefield, B, Bissell; U, Ansted; D, Hinton; E, Parkersburg; F, Milten; G, Huntington; H, Roneverte; I, Huntington.

The average is fifty men to a company. No orders have yet been received from the Federal government for calling out the guard, and Colonicl Casteel was unable last night to state the probable rendezvous.

LITTLEJOHN'S RAZOR Wielded With Disastrous Effect on i Special Officer at Bellaire.

Charles Littlejohn, colored, lately em ployed at the Bellaire steel works, was discharged yesterday afternoon. About another descendant of Ham, name unnown, went to the works seeking trouble—and, as usual, got it. He was discovered in the stock house by D. C. Shepherd, special officer at the works, and ordered from the premises. Little-john refused, and in the struggle that ensued, wielded a razor with disastrous effects to the officer. Two wicked wounds were inflicted, the first gash, extending from the circle as the care wounds were indicted, the first gash ex-tending, from the right ey; to the ear, and the second, four inches long, across the back of the head. L'Attlejohn re-ceived slight cuts on two firges. Shep-herd's wounds are not considered dan-gerous. Littlejohn and his friend were held at the city lock-up pending a trial
